FOR GUESTS AT THE NAVAL BASE COMMANDER'S LUNCHEON PRECEDING THE ARMY/NAVY
FOOTBALL GAME ON SATURDAY, 29 NOVEMBER 1980

For the convenience of the Naval Base Commander's guests attending the luncheon prior to the Army/Navy Game on Saturday, 29 November, parking will be provided in the parking lot across from the Marine Barracks between the Naval Reserve Center and the Dispensary on Broad Street, Philadelphia Naval Base. Transportation will be provided before the game, from the parking area noted above, to the Base Commander's Quarters, and then to Veterans' Stadium. Following the game, return transportation to the parking area will also be available.

The enclosed "Guest Parking" card will authorize you to park in this area and, if prominently displayed, the card will also assist in expediting your entry on the Naval Base. If, however, you decide not to drive to the game, please destroy this card, as it is intended for your personal use only.

City authorities have requested that guests wishing to park inside the Naval Base be advised to use the Southbound lanes on Broad Street.

We hope that the above information will prove useful, and that you will enjoy a pleasant day while we BEAT ARMY!
